

2020 CASP Work Studios Open Call: Come Create at CASP!

The Charles Adams Studio Project is currently seeking committed and creative individuals for a Work Studio residency. The Work Studio will be ready for move in by November 1, 2020. The mission of The Charles Adams Studio Project (CASP) is to serve as a cornerstone in the Lubbock Arts District through developing and sustaining a working artists' community that actively engages the public with the arts. CASP pursues this mission in large part through the acquisition and renovation of real property within the Lubbock Cultural Arts District.

CASP facilities currently include:

- The CH Metals Studio & Foundry
- The Helen DeVitt Jones Print Studio
- 4 Live/Work Studios, 1,100 square foot private studio and residence
- 8 Work Studios, 800 square foot private studio space
- CASP 5&J Gallery: 1,865 square foot exhibition and event space
- Texas Tech Satellite Gallery, exhibition and educational facility sponsored by the Texas Tech School of Art
- Charles Adams Gallery, representing regional artists
- 1105 Mac Davis residence and courtyard, residence and event space

CASP provides artists with studio space, specialized equipment, and exhibition opportunities. CASP promotes an environment of creative exchange and community engagement through public workshops, demonstrations, lectures, tours, weekly studio classes, and First Friday Art Trail events, as well as through artist residencies in the CASP Live/Work Studios, the Helen DeVitt Jones Print Studio Fellowship, and The CH Foundation Arts Administration and Metals Studio & Foundry Fellowships.

Selected artists will have the opportunity to:

- Conduct research and develop work in a private studio space
- Utilize CASP facilities, including the metal and print studios
- Engage with the public through open studio hours, First Friday Art Trail, and other events
- Contribute to a dynamic community of artists and art professionals

WORK STUDIO AMENITIES

- 738 square foot studio space
